Dear Future Self,

I am writing to express my heartfelt gratitude to you for inspiring me to be the best version of myself.

Struggling with homework, practising music and preparing for examinations ... Life is tough. Sometimes I feel discouraged and stressed, like I have to come up against a brick wall. It is you who always stand by my side to encourage me. This works like magic to me.

I share the same view as George Bernard Shaw's saying, "Life isn't about finding yourself. Life is about creating yourself." Every time when I see you in tip-top shape, you remind me to keep working hard. You are my strength to overcome all the challenges ahead.

Thank you once again, Future Self, for reminding me that I am not alone and every little effort I make will influence you. I promise I won't let you down!

Love,
Mayvis

Dear Respected Elders,

A family with an old person has a living treasure of gold. On behalf of the next generation, I would like to show our gratitude to you. Thank you for putting enormous efforts into creating a stable environment for us and educating us through your life.

Individually, you always share with young people your past experiences. You walk the talk and show us what is right. You direct us to the right track and prevent us from going in the wrong direction. This is something money cannot buy.

As a member of the community, you work hard to contribute to society and build the fundamental structure of the city. You are also an open book for us to gain wise knowledge, you to us persistence and diligence. Without your contribution, there would be no today. Thank you for always standing by our side.

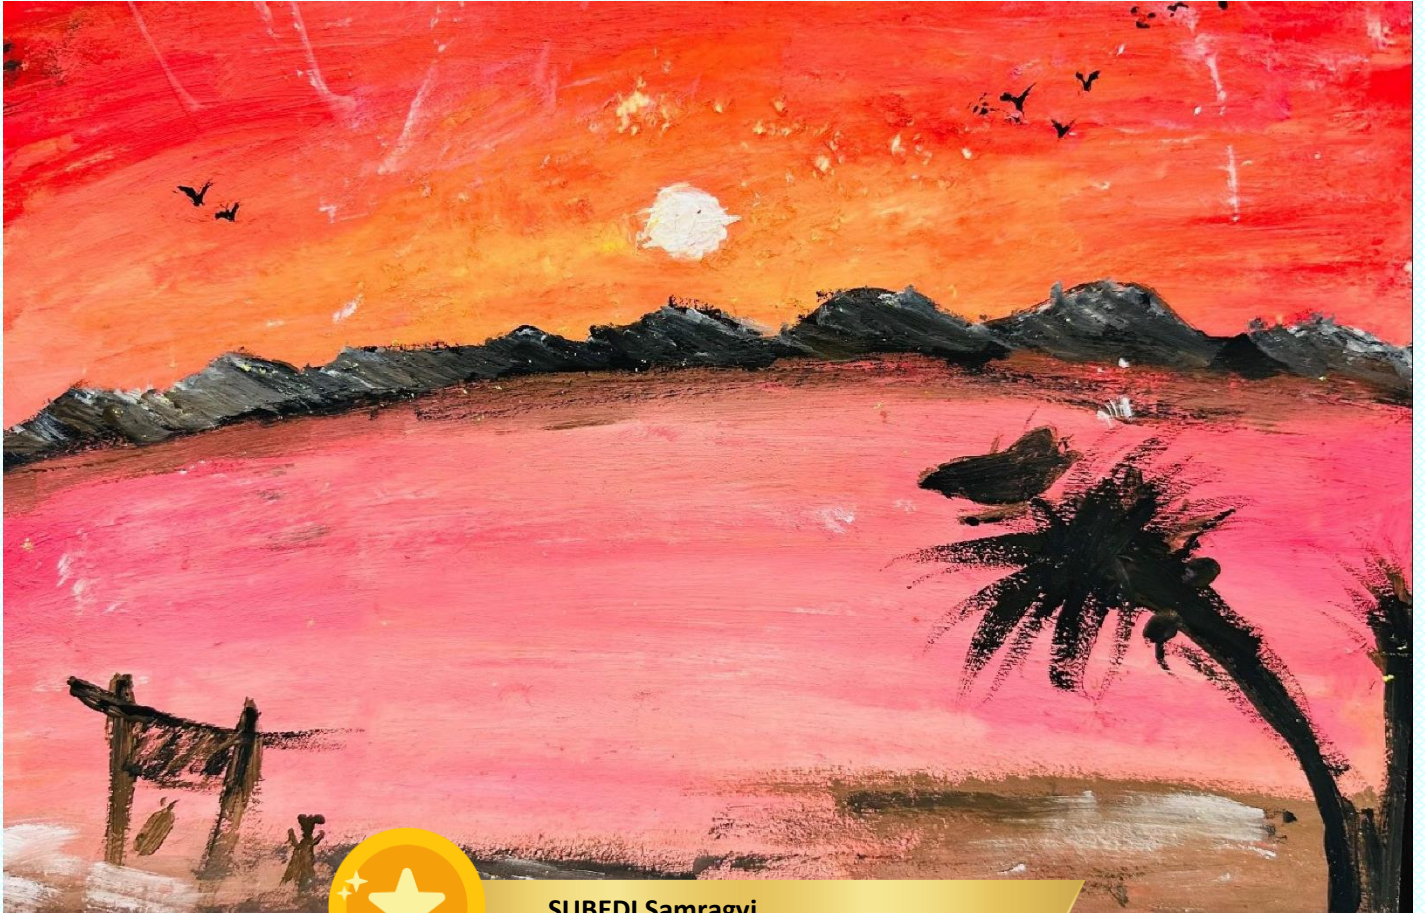

We love you!

Yours sincerely,
The Next Generation

Dear Nature,

I am writing to express my gratitude for your beauty, which can transport us to a place of tranquillity. You have a way of evoking a sense of awe and wonder and captivating our senses.

I remember hiking in Nepal a few years ago and enjoying the fresh air. Suddenly, I was greeted by the vision of the setting sun, and I watched in awe as the sky changed colours from vibrant orange to the darkest blue. The sunset was like a painting in the sky, the colours blending together with a masterful artist’s brushstrokes. I could almost hear the Sun whisper, “Rest now; tomorrow brings new light and possibilities.”

As Kristen Butler shared, “Sunsets are proof that no matter what happens, every day can end beautifully.” As long as we pause to watch, reflect and appreciate all the moments, this journey of life, like a sunset, can also be very beautiful.

Love,
Samragyi
