Penelope: A firefly.

Peter: A real one?

Penelope: No, just pretending. Besides, I wouldn't put a fairy in a jar. Fairies are lovely.

Peter: Whoa, what's this?

Penelope: Wow, it looks like a door in a tree. A treehouse?

Peter: That's odd, I've been playing in this forest for years and never seen anything like it.

Penelope: I wonder who could have built this? It looks old and a little bit...magical.

Peter: I have no idea. Wait, do you hear that?

Penelope: Yes, it sounds like music coming from the other side.

Peter: Let's go inside!

Penelope: Are you sure? What if we can't get back out?

Peter: We said we wanted an adventure right? This is an adventure! Or do you want to go play princess back at home?

Penelope: Alright, move! [Penelope opens the door and the music gets louder.]

Penelope: Here goes nothing! [She reaches her hand to Peter]
