Parent-child activity 2: Brainstorming Exercise

Objective: To help parents understand how to use brainstorming and mind maps to help children write essays.

Instructions:

1. Task: Using scene description techniques to describe what you saw, heard and felt when you first arrived at a city in the sky.
2. Goal: To describe the characteristics of the environment and what residents were doing to express the atmosphere at that time.
3. Requirement: Please brainstorm the ideas and use a mind map to conceive the content of the essay.
4. Tip: After brainstorming, you may want to see if your ideas can respond to the requirements of the task.
